Columbia County Residents - We Need Your Help!

Columbia County libraries are facing a budget cut. Library service to Columbia County residents, both rural and municipal is provided by the libraries in Columbia County with assistance from county funds. These public libraries are in the communities of Wisconsin Dells, Cambria, Columbus, Lodi, Pardeeville, Portage, Poynette, Randolph, Rio, and Wyocena. County funds are essential to assure that our libraries can provide vital services to all of our patrons. The county finance committee is proposing a budget cut in 2023 funding for libraries. At the budget hearing on November 15, the 10 county libraries will be requesting that the 2023 Columbia County Library budget be restored to the same funding level that we received in 2022. Please fill out a postcard in support of your library. Postcards are available at the library and on the bookmobile. Please let your county representative know that your library is important to you.

Hoopla Spotlight Selection: Never Saw Me Coming by Vera Kurian

Dive into spooky season with Hoopla's spotlight selection! Never Saw Me Coming follows seven students in a psychology study at a University. All seven participants are diagnosed psychopaths. Once a few students are murdered, investigators are quick to blame members of the study. Follow the lives of these students and see if you can figure out who the real killer turns out to be. There are unlimited copies of this book available on Hoopla in both audiobook and Ebook formats.

November Book Discussion:

The November book selection is The Lost Apothecary by Sarah Penner. Hidden in the depths of eighteenth-century London, a secret apothecary shop caters to an unusual kind of clientele. Women across the city whisper of a mysterious figure named Nella who sells well-disguised poisons to use against the oppressive men in their lives. But the apothecary's fate is jeopardized when her newest patron, a precious twelve-year-old, makes a fatal mistake, sparking a string of consequences that echo through the centuries. This subversive and intoxicating debut novel of secrets and vengeance will be discussed twice in the month of November: Monday, November 28 at 5:30 pm and Wednesday, November 30 at 1:30 pm. Everyone is welcome to attend! Copies of the book are available at the library, on the bookmobile and on Hoopla.
